

THE POWER OF INTRAGENERATIONAL AND INTERGENERATIONAL LEARNING

Aminta Permpoonwiwat

Generational Gaps

Knowledge and skills

- Technology and digital literacy
- Language and communication
- Occupational skills

Culture and beliefs

- Social values
- Religious beliefs
- Political beliefs
- Cultural norms
- Environmental consciousness

Table Of Contents

1

Recognizing the Value of Intragenerational and Intergenerational Learning

2

Creating Intergenerational Spaces

3

Leveraging Technology

4

Encouraging Lifelong Learning

Recognizing the Value of Intragenerational and Intergenerational Learning

- Bridge generational gaps (culture, knowledge, skills, etc)
- Strengthen social cohesion
- Promote a sense of belonging

YOUTH MENTORSHIP PROJECT

SUCCESS STORIES

Siriraj Hospital Walk-and-Run Event

Youth paired with older persons

Learning Traditional Ways of Life

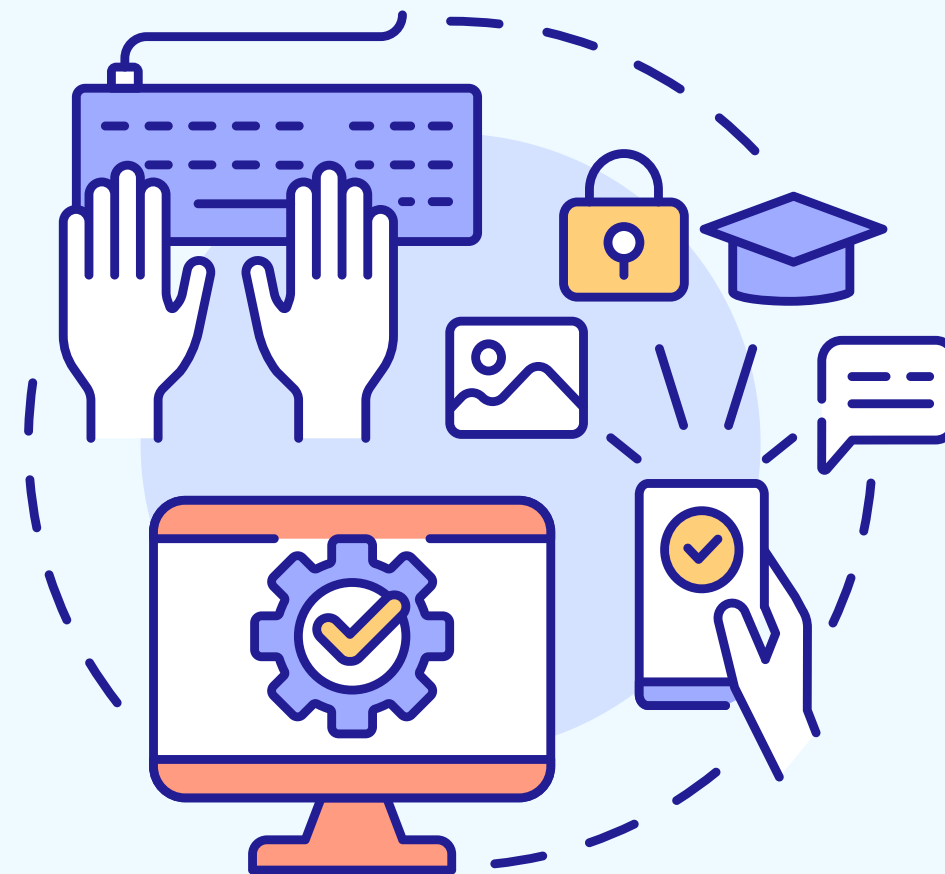

Creating Intergenerational Spaces

- Intergenerational learning environments
- Intergenerational workplaces

Leveraging Technology

- Ensure inclusive and accessible digital literacy programs
- Utilize technology

Encouraging Lifelong Learning

- Encourage people of all ages to acquire new skills and knowledge continuously
- Advocate for policies that make education and training to be accessible for individuals throughout their lives

LEAVE NO ONE BEHIND

